

Asset Preservation & Tax Mastery BOOTCAMP

Accurate vs. Relevant Do you know the difference?

When it comes to real estate asset protection and tax planning, you need a plan that protects your investments, minimizes taxes, and ensures it will not stand in the way of your investing. Too many professionals only offer accurate information and miss the larger picture. As an investor, you also need relevant information

Most people who attend this training are shocked to learn how much their local attorney or accountant never told them about these concepts.

Get relevant information as it pertains to real estate investing by registering for one of our upcoming 3 day Asset Preservation and Tax Mastery Boot Camps. At this elite training for BUSINESS OWNERS AND INVESTORS, you will be taught by some of the country's top legal and tax minds with a real estate and investor emphasis. You will be shown a wide variety of case studies and scenarios covering various investing situations and how to maximize your planning. In addition to learning about investment corporations, specialized limited liability companies, joint venture structures, self-directed IRA investing, and land trusts, you will work with the legal team to create your own Customized Tax and Legal Plan.
